

June/July 2020

DEPARTMENTS

- 2 Editor's Note
- 4 Business Beat
- 41 Funds
- 42 Business News
- 44 Media & Marketing
- 57 Legal
- 61 Workplace
- 70 Motoring
- 71 Subscriptions
- 72 Top Ten

Golf GTI 70

Oliver Mauss 66

HPSU 58

Kastus 22

COVER STORIES

28 Irish Shares
The big players on the stock exchange were sold off heavily in March. They've bounced back, but how stretched are their balance sheets?

10 Coronacrisis
The government's wage subsidies have delivered unprecedented fiscal support to SMEs. Lobby groups insist that credit guarantees for bank lending are needed too

62 Online Trading
Covid-19 lockdown has prompted a dash to e-commerce. It doesn't cost much to start but successful online trading isn't for amateurs

46 Restructuring
Examinership can be an effective path to survival out of insolvency but the process needs reform to suit Covid-impacted micro firms

ALSO INSIDE

- 6 Zeus Scooters
Former G4S boss Damian Young has hopped onto the electric scooter rental market and is readying to roll out his new business in Germany
- 14 MMT
Is there such a thing as free money? Modern Monetary Theory says yes, but not everyone agrees
- 18 Certification Europe
Facilitating ISO accreditation has been a recurring money-spinner. So much so that the private equity has landed
- 22 Kastus
The Dublin venture developed a surface coating that kills viruses, including Covid-19. Founder John Browne is hoping to clean up
- 25 Soldo
Investors love this fintech company, which can facilitate a payment card for every employee who needs one
- 40 Donough Kilmurray
The Chief Investment Officer at Davy explains what wealth management means in practice
- 58 HPSU
The Enterprise Ireland programme is generous with taxpayer funding. It helps to have the right Development Advisor in your corner
- 70 Golf GTI
Volkswagen enters the 2020 sales period with a revamped Golf line-up, including a new GTI

Aviva Stadium 44

Zeus Scooters 6

Lennox 61

Certification Europe 18

FREE SHAVING OIL FOR SUBSCRIBERS

SEE PAGE 71